

Janis Bucknor, Esq.
Director

Maisha Riley, M. Ed.
Director

November 13, 2015

To Whom It May Concern:

It gives me great pleasure to write this letter of support for TPS Publishing. I am excited about what our teachers and students are doing in their classrooms. The addition of TPS to our curriculum has enriched our overall program. It correlates directly with our S.T.E.A.M. focus and allows teachers to engage students in learning all the time. We are a K-8 charter school serving students in the Los Angeles and Carson communities.

TPS has provided an abundance of resources and the curriculum is easily differentiated and interactive. The publishers are easily accessed and respond quickly to emails. Their availability to come and observe, coach, instruct has proved invaluable. With the addition of the new Common Core Standards and new assessments, we are assured that TPS has and will contribute to the success of all of our children.

Our teaching staff and Instructional Coaches are fully supportive of the program implementation. We know that TPS has made a difference in the lives of many other students in surrounding schools and we have benefited from being a pilot site. The curriculum meets the needs of varied learning modalities and thereby reaches most students where other curriculum has not.

I am fully supportive of the work that Maz and Ian Wright are doing and welcome the opportunity to answer any questions you may have. If I can be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in blue ink, appearing to read 'Maisha Riley', is written over a light blue circular stamp.

Maisha Riley
Director